QX Metals Announces Changes to the Board of Directors

Vancouver, B.C., June 30, 2020. QX Metals Corp. (TSX-V: QX) (OTC: BLSSD) (“QX Metals” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Craig Parry as Chairman of the Board of Directors of QX Metals Corp. Mr. Parry, as an exploration and business development geologist, has over 20 years of experience in the resources sector. Mr. Parry is the current President and Chief Executive Officer of IsoEnergy Ltd. and is a co-founder, former director and now senior advisor of NexGen Energy Ltd.

In addition, Mr. Parry is a founding partner and shareholder of EMR Capital and former senior advisor to the Fund and was a co-founder of the Tigers Realm Group and was responsible for the business development activities since inception in 2008 to 2015. Mr. Parry acted as CEO of Tigers Realm Coal where he oversaw the acquisition of the Amaam Coal projects, led the discovery of the Amaam North Coal deposit and led the development of the Amaam North Coal mine and related transport and port infrastructure.

He was also the Business Development Manager for G-Resources Limited responsible for mergers and acquisitions from 2009 to 2012 and Principal Geologist - New Business at Oxiana Limited responsible for strategy and business development initiatives in bulk and energy commodities. At Rio Tinto he led exploration programs for iron ore, copper, diamonds, coal and bauxite in Australia, Asia and South America and was Principal Geologist for the Kintyre Uranium project pre-feasibility study. Mr. Parry holds an Honours Degree with University Medal in Geology from the University of New South Wales and is a Member of the Australian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy.

The Company also announces that Mr. Rod McKeen and Mr. John Williamson have resigned from the Company’s Board of Directors. “The Company would like to thank Mr. McKeen and Mr. Williamson for their contributions to the Company over the past several years,” stated Vince Sorace, President and CEO of QX Metals Corp.
